

Mrs Davis, Bakers Piece House, Kingston Blount. Feb. 1987. 7c
Not

Mr Mundy from Sydenham and Mrs Davis lived in the thatched cottages in the High Street which were pulled down about ten years ago, where Lockrie's live now.

Elsie Seymour born 1902. Mother lived at Moat Manor with her Granny Horwood. mother Agnes Thurser Horwood in middle house at Moat Manor, later lived in row by Mrs Foster's, Mrs Paris now lives in their house.

Will Taylor lived in Royal Oak.

Next door was baker's shop.

Gran Fletcher who also lived in Moat Manor is Mrs. Davis's mother's sister.

George Davis is her husband on the Home Guard picture.

Robert Horwood 1881.

Lydia Horwood - grandmother.

William

Theresa

Levi (son lived at Aston)

Alice

Alice,

Thurser

and Lou.

Moat Manor: Aunt Lou Chowns one side, Horwood in the Middle. Aunt Bess is Mother's sister.

Mr. Davis, her dad, was butcher at Adie's Barn.

Hill's house is now Donaldson's.

George Oakley was the baker on the Green.

Baker May was in Vine House.

Doctor came from Watlington to Wakelin Cottage.

Grocer's shop was Hugh Reid's House.